capacity. Counselors meet with the students within 24-48 hours with the goal of having a restorative conversation. May escalate to a distance and respect contract. This contract is designed to teach the students to treat the school environment as a professional work environment. Safe to Tell is a reporting mechanism. The counselors have QR codes to report without having to speak face-to-face. Relationships are being built within the campus so all kids have a trusted adult on campus. One of the biggest challenges is that bullying is not reported. Bullying that falls under Title IX escalates immediately to disciplinary action. Ms. Voltz- Focus on teaching on what is bullying and prevention strategies utilizing the LEAD acronym. Kids have a trusted adult that they can report to. Using the acronym MOO to define bullying as compared to conflict. If a report of bullying comes in, counselors and administrators work together to investigate the situation and determine the consequences based on the Major Infractions BLRA consequences based on the Major Infractions BLRA Behavior Matrix.
